The current proposal from the TV broadcasters is for three party leader debates to happen before the general election in May. The first would include Conservative leader David Cameron, Labour leader Ed Miliband, Liberal Democrat leader Nick Clegg and UKIP leader Nigel Farage. The second would include just David Cameron, Ed Miliband and Nick Clegg. The third would only include David Cameron and Ed Miliband. To what extent would you support or oppose this arrangement for the general election in 2015?
